EXPLANATION

11 This bill directs the department of human services to 12 adopt rules to provide that administrative costs shall 13 not exceed 18 percent of total program costs for supported
14 community living programs under the medical assistance 15 home and community-based services waiver for intellectual 16 disabilities. Administrative costs are costs incurred in the 17 general management and administrative functions of the program.
18 Currently, administrative costs for these programs are capped 19 at 20 percent of direct costs.
